

RSM McGladrey Expands iMIS Delivery and Support to Not-for-Profits throughout the Mid-Atlantic and New York

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., December 10, 2007 – RSM McGladrey, a leading provider of accounting, tax and business consulting for enterprises and not-for-profit organizations, today announced the expansion of services delivery for the iMIS solution. The company will market, sell and provide front-line support for iMIS customers located throughout the Mid-Atlantic and New York region. iMIS users in these geographies will now have access to, and support from, an Authorized iMIS Solution Provider (AISP), certified by software creator, Advanced Solutions International (ASI).

Both RSM McGladrey and the iMIS solution serve the unique needs of not-for-profit organizations. Combining the company's specialized knowledge with the proven performance of iMIS, RSM McGladrey will deliver integrated total solutions consulting and technology products that ensure clients implement the right systems to support their business processes, satisfying stakeholders. RSM McGladrey chose to incorporate the iMIS solution in the company's entire portfolio of products and services because the existing partnership with ASI has been successful, and ASI's software is a recognized leader in the not-for-profit industry.

"As a leading provider of accounting, tax and business consulting to not-for-profits throughout the country, our goal is to continually enrich the value of our client relationships by introducing relevant products and services," says Mike Miller, managing director in charge of RSM McGladrey's national consulting services practice. "iMIS is a natural fit for us because it is a software solution that is specifically geared to not-for-profits, integrates well with our Microsoft Dynamics financial applications, and is widely accepted in the industry."

RSM McGladrey is already one of the largest AISP's in the country with more than 150 iMIS-using clients nationwide. The company is a Platinum AISP member, guaranteeing customers RSM McGladrey is certified on all of the iMIS offerings, and has extensive experience implementing and supporting the iMIS solution. In addition to authoring the popular Customer Service Alerts for iMIS modules, RSM McGladrey has received numerous performance awards from ASI, including Authorized Solutions Provider of the Year Award.

iMIS services and support are available immediately to RSM McGladrey's 1000 not-for-profit customers in the Mid-Atlantic and New York region.
